

Pronouns Instead of Nouns

We don't like using the same noun twice in a sentence twice. Instead, we replace it with a pronoun.

For instance: Jake was tired so Jake stopped to take a rest. Versus Jake was tired so he stopped to take a rest.

Complete the sentences below with an appropriate pronoun:

1. Joe was hungry so _____ made himself a sandwich.
2. Niki was tired so _____ went to bed.
3. Jay ran so quickly that _____ won the race.
4. Lily was tying her shoelace on her shoe but _____ shoelace broke.
5. Pete sang so loudly that _____ hurt his throat.
6. Butch's car was dirty so _____ took it to the car wash.
7. Jen felt sick so _____ went to the doctor.
8. Ben was annoyed with his brother so _____ went to his room.
9. Dana doesn't like pizza so _____ didn't eat her lunch.
10. Cal went fishing but _____ didn't catch any fish.
11. Jordan lost his dog Dexter so _____ went looking for _____.
12. Jess chipped his tooth so _____ went to the dentist.

Pronouns Instead of Nouns

We don't like using the same noun twice in a sentence twice. Instead, we replace it with a pronoun.

For instance: Jake was tired so Jake stopped to take a rest. Versus Jake was tired so he stopped to take a rest.

Complete the sentences below with an appropriate pronoun:

1. Joe was hungry so he made himself a sandwich.
2. Niki was tired so she went to bed.
3. Jay ran so quickly that he won the race.
4. Lily was tying her shoelace on her shoe but she shoelace broke.
5. Pete sang so loudly that he hurt his throat.
6. Butch's car was dirty so he took it to the car wash.
7. Jen felt sick so she went to the doctor.
8. Ben was annoyed with his brother so he went to his room.
9. Dana doesn't like pizza so she didn't eat her lunch.
10. Cal went fishing but he didn't catch any fish.
11. Jordan lost his dog Dexter so he went looking for him.
12. Jess chipped his tooth so he went to the dentist.